MEMORANDUM

Minnesota Statutes § 211A.02 requires candidates or committees who receive contributions or make disbursements of over $750 in a calendar year, to file financial reports with the “filing officer.”<sup>1</sup> In addition, Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05 subd. 1, requires that candidates or committee treasurers certify to the filing officer that all financial reports required by section 211A.02 have been submitted or that the candidate or committee did not receive contributions or make disbursements exceeding $750 in the calendar year. The certification must be submitted to the filing officer no later than seven days after the general or special election.

If a candidate or committee fails to file a required financial report on the date it is due, the filing officer shall immediately notify the candidate or committee of the failure to file.<sup>2</sup> If the report is not filed within ten days after the notification is mailed, the filing officer shall file a complaint under section 211B.32.<sup>3</sup>

Chris Cutts was a candidate for the Faribault City Council in the September 12, 2006, primary election. Mr. Cutts did not receive enough votes to advance to the November general election. According to the complaint, Mr. Cutts did not file any campaign financial reports and has failed to file a certification of filing within seven days of the general election as required by Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05, subd. 1. Lorri Smith is the Administrative Assistant for the City of Faribault. By letters dated December 8, 2006, and January 11, 2007, Ms. Smith notified Mr. Cutts of his failure to file the required campaign financial report certification of filing. To date, the City has not received the certification of filing from Mr. Cutts.

Because the City alleges that Mr. Cutts has not filed the campaign financial report certification of filing that was due by November 14, 2006, the Complaint states a prima facie violation of Minnesota Statutes § 211A.05, subd. 1. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 211B.33, subd. 2(d), this matter shall be set on for an evidentiary hearing before a panel of three administrative law judges. An order scheduling this matter for a prehearing conference and evidentiary hearing will be issued shortly.
